

Opening – Research Analyst

© Washington CORE

Washington CORE, L.L.C., is an independent consulting and research firm providing strategic analysis and advisory services to a global array of clients. By leveraging in-depth research capabilities coupled with extensive international networks in both public and private sectors, we deliver clarity and insight to prepare our clients for success in an ever-changing global landscape. Please find out more about Washington CORE at www.wcore.com.

Primary Duties

- Design – Develop research methodologies and design research plans and surveys
- Research – Conduct thorough secondary research using various online sources
- Interview – Perform surveys and interviews with key stakeholders to understand and report on policy trends and business insights
- Analyze – Evaluate research findings and integrate data and insights
- Report – Produce accurate in-depth reports that summarize research findings, analysis and recommendations
- Present – Make effective presentations of key findings to clients and team members

TO APPLY

- Please send your resume with a cover letter to jobs@wcore.com
- The application process involves a two-hour test to assess research and writing skills.
- If you have any questions, please call us at (301) 654-2915 x120